

FOOTSTEPS (2011)

A picture on the cover of a magazine from Fullarton Church, along with thoughts resulting from a talk by Adrian Plass at Carberry Towers in Edinburgh, whilst Shirley was on holiday, gave her the original ideas for this banner. We wanted to make a banner involving the children attending our Summer Holiday Club and felt this design was appropriate, drawing round the children's feet and cutting them out of brightly coloured felt. The beautiful cross was made by Sheila. The children all made a mini-banner, also with an outline of their feet, to take home.
